

THE HERALD.

Friday Morning, Oct. 19, 1912.

FOR PRESIDENT,
HORACE GREELY,
OF New York.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
GRATZ BROWN,
OF Missouri.

For Governor—JOHN C. BROWN.
Congress at Large—B. F. CHEATHAM.
For Congress—W. C. WHITTAKER.
For State Senator—T. F. ALLISON.
For State Representative—JOHN FRIERSON.
For Representative—JAS. H. AKIN.

FANNY FERR one of the greatest female writers of the age, died Oct. 10th.

PRESIDENT GRANT has appointed by proclamation the 28th of November as a day of Thanksgiving.

By the careless handling of a shot gun, a little boy killed in Lincoln county on the 11th.

No stamps are required on any legal documents, notes, or other writing, except bank checks, since October 1st.

Mrs. Betsy Estes died last week, in Giles county, at the age of eighty-four.

W. W. Neal is a candidate for the State Senate from the counties of Lawrence, Giles, Wayne and Lewis.

Gen. George Maney, of Nashville, ex-Confederate is out in a two column letter in favor of Grant.

The election in South Carolina, Wednesday, resulted in the election of Moore, the Radical candidate for Governor, and a gain of one Liberal member of Congress.

A negro man stole a pocket book from a woman of his own color the other day, at Pulaski, was arrested, a true bill found; he was tried, condemned to eight years in the penitentiary within twenty-four hours of the theft.

The Franklin Review fails to host the name of our nominee for Governor—Mr. JOHN FRIERSON. We indulge the hope that it was an unintentional omission.

The Democratic of the 5th Congressional district failed to nominate a candidate for Congress at Gallatin last week, and STARK and GOLLA, the two most prominent aspirants, are running as independent candidates. Of course a Radical will be elected, if they continue in the field.

We have seen private letters from prominent men in the counties of Lincoln, and Giles, and the cities of Clarksville, Knoxville, and Chattanooga, all of whom give encouraging news for CHEATHAM. The letter from Fayetteville claims Lincoln county for CHEATHAM by 2,000 majority over FRIERSON.

The Cincinnati Commercial says: "Several persons of some temporary distinction in this country have been improperly, as we think, styled 'Old Brains.' Greeley is the man for that name. His speeches made during last week show that he carries more wisdom and patriotism, hearty humanity and practical information under his hat, than any other man in America."

CRIMINAL COURT at Pulaski adjourned last week. The Grand Jury has published a card in the Pulaski Citizen, in which they compliment Judge McLENNON for the "prompt, patient, and able manner" in which he disposed of his duties; and also Capt. FRESLEY, Attorney General, for his "kind, dignified, and courteous bearing." He convicted a large number of criminals, and sent eleven of them to the Penitentiary for the aggregated period of ninety years.

Col. Cox, the Greeley & Brown Elector for this district, having filled his appointments heretofore published, publishes in the HERALD to-day another list of appointments, embracing several points in Maury. He will speak at Columbia, on the 23d inst. Col. Cox has entered the canvass in earnest, and is doing noble service for the Liberal cause.

RADICAL negroes have recently created riots in Cincinnati, Montgomery and Macon. Negroes are everywhere very much the same, because they are nearly all ignorant, and are controlled by politicians. They seem not to discern the difference between liberty and license, and think they ought to kill every negro that differs with them politically. HORACE GREELY has been, and is, the best friend the negro race ever had, and yet if any one of them sees proper to advocate his election, he is in danger of losing his life.

WM. H. SEWARD died on the 10th of the present month, at his residence in Auburn, New York. He was a man of powerful intellect, and for years had a great influence on American politics. His first great prominence to the idea of a "irrepressible conflict" between free labor and slave labor, which culminated in a war and the freedom of the slaves. He was Secretary of State under Presidents LINCOLN and JOHNSON, and much of the success of the war of coercion was due to his skillful diplomacy. He lost his great influence in the North, after the close of the war, by advocating reconciliation of the sections. The great man's last words were, "Love one another."

The Hartford agents of Pennsylvania are making a big drive to get a letter from "General Thomas A. Harris, of Tennessee," in which he says of Hartman that he knows "no gentleman on this continent more worthy of exalted official position and public confidence." "General" Thomas A. Harris—changed if he hasn't sprung a new one on the people of Tennessee this time—(Louisville Courier-Journal)

The "General" THOMAS A. HARRIS spoken of above, is, we presume, EUG. THOMAS A. HARRIS, of Mt. Pleasant, in this county. He was a Confederate Lieutenant in the late war, and, like many others, has been promoted since the war, doubtless without his knowledge or consent.

Our Primary Election.

According to appointment, a primary election was held in Maury county last Saturday, to decide who should be the Democratic candidates for Floater and Representative, resulting in the election of Mr. JOHN FRIERSON and Major JAS. H. AKIN. The vote polled was as follows: For Floater—JAS. H. AKIN, 1,234; JOHN FRIERSON, 1,100. For Representative—JAS. H. AKIN, 1,234; JOHN FRIERSON, 1,100.

Our nominees are worthy of our votes independent of their claims as the candidates of our party. Neither of them is a politician, but both are gentlemen of good business capacity. All of us feel a pride in having our county represented by those who would take leading positions in the Legislature as debaters and thinkers; but, after all, we are decidedly of the opinion that it is better for the material interests of the county and the State, to have clear-headed business men, whose practical common sense will teach them unerringly what will best conduce to the financial, agricultural and mechanical advancement of the county. While JOHN FRIERSON, Major AKIN and Major ALLISON will not be likely to become great political leaders, they will do what is infinitely better for our county—will thrive and flourish, live in the country, and their families will be able to support themselves by their own industry, and their families will be able to support themselves by their own industry, and their families will be able to support themselves by their own industry.

As the canvass for Congressman for the State at Large progresses the danger of the election of HORACE MAYNARD, Tennessee's most implacable enemy, becomes more probable. If a majority of the Democracy of Tennessee wanted Ex-President JOHNSON as their candidate, they should have sent delegates to Nashville and nominated him; and it is too late for them to awaken from their lethargy. We were not at all satisfied with the make-up of the State Convention, but opposition to it now can only make bad worse.

If we are for the nominees, we will get a Congressman of good sense, and sterling integrity of character; if we vote against the nominee the chances are that we will thereby elect MAYNARD, our most malignant enemy. Vote for honest FRANK CHEATHAM.
